invites you to a seminar about the topic:

Adventures in Relationships

A seminar in applied relationship work

26-28.5.2017

in beautiful Oravska Lesna, Slovakia

With Ivan Verny, M.D. and Marianne Verny, M.D.

We are in relationships all the time – whether we are with somebody or not, because then we are in relationship with our selves, with nature, divine powers or the void. In this seminar we want to concentrate on different aspects of relationship work as we need & use them in counseling, therapy, teaching or private life. We will practice awareness of signals & double signals; individual and shared edges; relationship myth and its use; the wisdom of accusations; projections and dreaming up phenomena; high & low dreams; trances and moods; impact of gender, roles, ranks, privileges; and enjoy some fresh / cheeky interventions.

Of course, in two days we can only do some of the above, and the choice will be happening on the spot. Anybody interested in facilitating own and other people's relationships is welcome: couples, who want to work on their relationship, professionals who mediate conflicts, lay people who want to enjoy more their daily quarrels or peace-makers interested in conflict management, even teachers wanting to reach their students or pupil's parents better.

Biographies: Marianne and Ivan Verny are psychiatrists, process-oriented psychotherapists and supervisors with a private practice in Zurich. They offer seminars on development of personal and relationship skills in Switzerland, Germany, Slovakia and Czech Republic. Here a video with them about diversity in relationships: <https://vimeo.com/148013193>
